The NECC is an association of agricultural cooperative organizations, Farm Credit Associations, and legal, tax, and accounting professionals conducting business throughout the Northeastern United States. Data summarized by the USDA Rural Development Cooperative Services indicates that net business volume of the more 150 cooperatives with 21,000 memberships doing business in the northeast was over $6.63 billion.

Each year the NECC hosts the Cooperative Leaders Forum in conjunction with the CoBank Northeast Customer meeting. Themes for this event have range from governance to leadership to external forces impacting the farm and food sector.

The biennial Future Cooperative Leaders Conference targets young adults. Over the years, this conference has provided young farmers with a solid foundation for becoming future board members and employees have built knowledge of the unique operating features of the organization.

The NECC has an established working relationship with the Cooperative Enterprise Program housed at Cornell University in the Charles H. Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management.

“WE APPRECIATE THE OPPORTUNITIES TO KEEP CURRENT WITH ISSUES OF IMPORTANCE TO COOPERATIVES AND TO NETWORK WITH NECC MEMBERS.” - Bond, Schoeneck & King, PLLC

“I VALUE NECC BECAUSE IT ENABLES ME TO BE ENGAGED WITH MY CLIENTS ON THE TOPICS OF HIGH IMPORTANCE TO THEM. FURTHERMORE THE ANNUAL MEETING ALLOWS ME TO CATCH UP IN PERSON WITH SEVERAL OF THEM AT ONE TIME IN ONE PLACE.”

- Robert Ludwig, Industry Consultant

“The NECC connects our organization to NECC member co-ops. The affiliation gives us insights to the changing issues affecting farmer co-ops whether related to governance, membership, management or any number of organizational, market or production driven forces.”

- Lynda Brushette, Cooperative Development Institute

JOIN US...

Become an Associate Member to connect with world class cooperatives, while learning about the issues they face. You will enhance your relationship with both current and future cooperative clients. Attend our annual Cooperative Leaders Forum to experience a sample of the benefits you gain through membership to the Northeast Cooperative Council.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Bobbie Severson, NECC Executive Secretary
Phone: 607.255.1987
Email: rmh27@cornell.edu